CARDS LOSE LAST N. C. CONFERENCE GAME WITH SIOUX

Outscored, But Not
Outplayed; Game
Finished 14-6

FORWARDS STAR

A fighting band of Cards poured out on the N. S. S. A. field Saturday and gave the Nodaks the battle of the season. The Card forwards were outstanding, as they made it necessary for the Sioux backs to run the ends and pass for their gains. The North Dakota University eleven were forced to use all of their strategy and wiles to defeat the fighting Cards 14-6 and stay in the North Central conference.

In the opening quarter of the game the Nodaks plunged and smashed their way to a touchdown after a bad punt to the Omaha 37. Charboneau, Campbell and Blanchette alternated to the Card's 10. Campbell started through center, but fumbled when Johnk hit him and Rorvig grabbed the ball and took it over. Johnson kicked and the score was 7-0 with Omaha in the rear.

Leo Pearey led the slaughter in the second stanza. Omaha's running attack swept the Nodaks off their feet and threw a chill into them when the ball rested on North Dakota's 16. The Nodaks held. Campbell dropped back to kick, but Royce Brown smacked through with four or five Cards and blocked the kick. Brown fell on the ball behind the goal for a touchdown. Loder missed and the score was 7-6. The Cards played heads-up football and stayed in the Nodaks' territory for the remainder of the half.

In the third quarter both teams clamped down on the running attacks and stopped them cold. Charboneau faded and faked a pass to the left side of the field, but pulled it over to the right to

Fine Arts Group Give Tea Sunday

The department of fine arts of the University will have a tea in Joslyn Hall Sunday afternoon, November 24, from 2 to 6 P. M. in rooms 22, 24 and 26.

Dr. Bertha C. Koch, assisted by Mr. Herschel Elarth, will be in charge. From 2 to 3 Mrs. Ralph Andrews and Mrs. James Bednar will pour; from 3 to 4 Mrs. W. Gilbert James and Mrs. Alvin Johnson will preside at the tea table; Mrs. Rowland Haynes and Mrs. G. A. Skinner from 4 to 5; and Mrs. Martin Bush and Mrs. Rene Stevens will do the honors from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Dr. Koch urges the students to come and see the exhibit of paintings and water colors on display this week.

A meeting of Feathers has been called by Dorothy Anderson, president, to meet today at 10 o'clock in Room 2.

Faculty Women Plan Banquet

The Faculty Women's Club of the University are sponsoring a dinner for the faculty Friday, December 6, at one of the downtown hotels.

The committee in charge of the banquet includes: Mrs. Leslie F. Johnson, Mrs. Clara Tow, Mrs. C. W. Helmstadter, Mrs. Bertha Koch, Mrs. Irene Pierce, Mrs. Nell G. Gillard, Mrs. V. H. Vartanian, Misses Ruth Diamond, Pearl Schaefer, and Jeanette Winters.

The faculty formal dinner has become an annual affair at the University.

Teams From Park, Vermillion To Meet Omaha Debaters

Professor D. E. Heckman has arranged a schedule of debates for the Omaha University debate team. The debaters have been invited to attend the Northwest Missouri State Teachers' College Invitational Debate Tournament to be held at Maryville, Mo. Two Omaha teams will participate in this contest.

On January 24 one men's team and one women's team will journey to Vermillion, So. Dak., to debate with the University of South Dakota in practice debates. The Vermillion squad will later meet Omaha University at Omaha.

About February 1 one team will engage the arguers of Park College in a debate to be held at Parkville, Mo. The Parkville team will come to Omaha later.

Kappa Jittery Hop Tomorrow Night

Bad luck will abound at the Kappa Psi Delta pledge dance. The Jittery Hop, as it is to be called, will be held on Saturday night, November 23, at 9 o'clock in Jacobs' Hall. Rose Marie Mashek has charge of the arrangements and is assisted by a committee of pledges.

The 150 bids which have been issued are in the form of black umbrellas. Ladders, black cats, broken mirrors and five-leaf clovers are to be used in the decorations.

Discuss Favorite Book Characters

Six members of Sigma Tau Delta presented sketches of their favorite characters in literature before a meeting of the fraternity Tuesday, November 19, at the Paxton. Jeanette Winters chose Sir Boss from Mark Twain's "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" as her favorite character. Gladys Reynolds discussed Merlin as he is characterized by Tennyson and by Edward Arlington Robinson. Others taking part in the program were Irene Pierce, Lucile Hurlbut, Erval McIlvaine and Edythe Grobmann.

Orchesis Recital Before Christmas

Orchesis will present a recital Wednesday, December 18, in Jacobs' Hall. The group will dance before their parents and friends.

The new curtains and footlights will be used. Their repertoire includes: Indian Rhymes, Opposition, Rhapsody in Blue, Ecossais, Country Dance, Conflict, Song of the Rites and The Parade.

WOMEN'S SOCCER TOURNAMENT TO CLOSE MONDAY

Warriors and Braves
Battle At Kountze
Park Field

SOCCER BANQUET

Soccer season, sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, will be brought to a close Monday, November 25, with a tournament game between two matched varsity teams, who will play at 4:30 p. m. at Kountze Park. The two teams are the Warriors and the Braves. The Warriors are led by Mary Alice Nelson, '38, and the Braves by Eloise Johnson, '38.

Miss Dorothy Zimmerman, Nebraska State Soccer chairman and physical education teacher at Vinton school, will referee the game and be guest speaker at the banquet which will immediately follow the game. Miss Anne Raymond, '38, chairman of soccer, is in charge of the arrangements for the banquet to be held in Jacobs' Hall at 5:30 p. m. and will serve as toastmistress. Miniature soccer balls will serve as place cards. The program is as follows:

Reading, Amy Rohacek, '37; spectator, Frances Savage, '38; violin solo, Lillian Anderson, '38; Linesman, Elsie Stahmer, '38; solo, Ida Gitlin, '39; player, Dolly Obradovich, '38; tap dance, June Jones, '39, and umpire, Dorothy Zimmerman.

The teams which play Monday afternoon are as follows:

Braves — Eloise Johnson, '38; Barbara Stuart, '39; Dolly Obradovich, '38; Ruth Thomason, '39; Ola McCraney, '38; Mary Harkness, '39; Dorothy Higgins, '39; Lillian Damask, '37; Hortense Geisler, '36; Mabel Knipprath, '39; Elsie Stahmer, '38; Ruth Jones, '39; Evelyn Faulk, '39; Ruth Grenville, '38; and Kathryn Davis, '38.

The Warriors — Verona Jerabek, '38; Ardith Hudson, '38; Rose Marie Mashek, '39; Mary Jane Cooper, '39; Betty Young, '39; Opal Betlach, '36; Helen Mickna, '39; Anne Raymond, '38; Mary Alice Nelson, '38; Betty Lou Stringer, '38; Phyllis Knudsen, '38; Bertha Greenberg, '39; Eunice Blatney, '39; Evelyn Dansky, '39; Harriette Salmon, '39; and Ellabelle Korney, '39.

Football Men See North Dakota Film

Late Tuesday afternoon Sed Hartman showed his boys some pictures of the North Dakota game played last Saturday. The films illustrated weaknesses in blocking on Omaha's part and the rather unnecessary use of the hands on the part of the Dakota tacklers. On the first touchdown scored by North Dakota Campbell dropped the ball and Rorvig recovered. But for the blocking on the part of one of the officials, Loder would have downed him on the playing field.

Hartman intended using pictures earlier in the year, but no arrangement could be made until now. Use of these pictures will be of great help in the future in correcting errors of play and judgment on the part of the players.

Snow Bewilders Hawaiian Lads

Steve Harper and Jack Kaaua saw snow for the first time last week on the University campus and at the North Dakota State game.

Their first impression was not so favorable and they complained of the cold weather. Steve stated that his first impression of snow was like the first time he wore long pants: it was so different, it was exciting.

The boys are anxious for the weather to turn extremely cold so they can try out their luck at ice-skating.

Gateway Surplus For Last Year Is Given To Staff

A surplus of $365.21 from Gateway receipts for last year will be divided among members of last year's editorial staff, Dr. W. D. Maclay, chairman of the board of publications, stated Thursday. About fifteen students from the editorial staff will share in the division of the $160.40 net profit for the first semester of last year. The second semester's profit of $204.81 will be distributed among eighteen individuals. Between five and six cents per inch will be paid.

According to Dr. Maclay, the total net profits are to be divided as follows: Business Manager, 50 per cent; Editorial Staff, 30 per cent; Board of Publications, 20 per cent.

The possibility of an annual for this year was also discussed at the Board of Publications meeting and will be definitely decided upon next Monday.

Alpha Gamma Chi Give Snow Dance

Alpha Gamma Chi sorority will hold their pledge dance tonight in Jacobs' Hall at 9 o'clock. Snow decorations were used on the bids and the snow theme will be carried out in the Gym. Evelyn Dansky, pledge president, is in charge of arrangements. Julian Nathan's orchestra will furnish the music. One hundred and seventy-five bids have been issued for the dance.

Art Department Shows Paintings

Forty-five water and pencil drawings of Professor Ralph Fanning, head of history of fine arts at Ohio State university, are being exhibited in a one-man art show by the art department in rooms 24 and 22.

Mr. Fanning spends the greater part of the year painting and traveling. He is an authority on the history of art and is interested in architecture, which is clearly evident in his pencil drawings.

The exhibit will not close until after Monday, November 25, and it is open to everyone interested.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Dean Lloyd Bradfield, Registrar C. W. Helmstadter, Alice Smith, Neva Carlson, and Gloria Kurtz, attended an all day meeting of the Nebraska Branch of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars Friday, November 15, at Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska. Miss Smith was elected secretary-treasurer of the organization for this year.

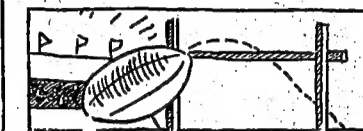

CARDS-CHADRON FOOTBALL GAME ENDS SCHEDULE

Seven Seniors Will Finish Grid
Careers

OMAHA FAVORITE

Smarting under three successive defeats, determined to keep their N. I. A. record clean, and losing many of their outstanding players after the game, Omaha will no doubt even the account with Chadron for a 128-0 score nailed up not so many years ago. For three weeks the Cards have been taking it on the chin, and now they are going to dish it out.

All signs point to a Cardinal victory, but the Omahans will not be spared in their practice this week. In times past, Chadron has pulled many an upset. However, Chadron does not have the team this year that almost beat the Cards last year. The Cards are undefeated in the N. I. A. conference and have been hardened by their contests with major elevens in the North Central conference.

The Omahans automatically became the N. I. A. title-holders when Peru beat Kearney 13-6. Win or lose, the Cards have captured the title for the second time in two years.

The team will be in fighting trim when they meet Chadron tomorrow, as some of the finest players that have ever worn a Card suit will turn them in after the game. Leo Pearey, passing ace and plunging maniac, is one of those that are going. Howard Sorensen, tackle; Noel King, guard; Loren Gammon, guard; Cliff Anderson, halfback; Bill Nelson, fullback, and Ken Turner, halfback, are leaving also, and their loss will be felt when Omaha lines up next year against tough competition.

Diamond Teaches Ballroom Dancing

All those wishing to "trip the light fantastic" or to learn the art of ballroom aesthetics, are urged to attend the noon dances held in Jacobs' Hall. The sessions will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays as soon as it gets cold, announced Miss Ruth Diamond Thursday.

The dances were originally started by Ed Nell Benson for the Barbs, but the hour is now open to all University students. Miss Benson is still in charge of arrangements.

Miss Diamond, head of the Women's Athletic Department, has volunteered to teach the students to dance. The first half hour is spent in teaching those to dance who wish to learn. The latter half of the hour may be spent in general dancing. All those students who are well versed in this art may help in the instruction.

Carol Wigton, '38, returned home Tuesday, from Lord Lister Hospital, where she had been recovering from an appendectomy.

NO MUSIC! NO CHEERS!

A number of students are taking advantage of a privilege granted to them by the bursar early in the semester. The bursar provided that students who played in the band were to be admitted into the football games, providing they were carrying their instruments, free of charge. At the same time it was decided that the cheerleaders should also be given free admission if they appeared at the gates wearing their red jackets. At the game last Saturday several students were seen entering the stands with their instruments, but not once during the game did the band play. There were also three red-jacketed cheerleaders at the game. The team was playing a grand game against a tough opponent and enthusiasm was high among the students in the stands but there was no organized cheering. Two of the boys in red jackets would lead a cheer occasionally, but only after several requests had been made each time for them to do so. Membership in the band and in the cheerleading squad is voluntary, but since the students in the band and the cheerleaders are enjoying the games at the expense of the University it is not too much to ask them to keep up their part of the bargain.

Only six more shopping days 'til Thanksgiving.

A YEARBOOK

Once more the Board of Student Publications is seriously considering the publication of an annual for the University. Each year the proposition has been presented to the students for their approval, but has been dropped because of the lack of student support. The administration has not always been willing in former years to back the publication of a year book for the school. However, the situation is entirely different this year. Not only the administration but the faculty and the Board of Publications realize that the time has come when the University must publish an annual in order to keep pace with the progress that the University is making in every other way. At present the Board is considering estimates of the cost of a year-book which will not only meet the needs of the University but will be within the purchasing power of the students. Before any definite plans can be made or a staff chosen to edit the annual, the Board must be assured of the student support to make this a successful enterprise. Several groups have pledged their support and it is now up to the student body to decide whether or not there will be an annual this year for the University of Omaha.

Thru The Keyhole

From Phoenix....Dearest Russell, are you angry with me? Why haven't you written? Please write soon....Love, Marg....What does the good book say about this Riggins?...What is the triangle between Harrington, Cramer, and Britton?...We gather from the Phi Delt that it is now more Britton than Cramer....Since Andy has become a "freelancer" he has done little or nothing....only six dates in seven days....all of them with different ones....Probably the biggest surprise of the Phi Delt was to see Lil with Fred Hoesfner.... When did this begin?...Amy's popular again.... she is refusing dates now instead of worrying about getting them....This week Hughes is Headman.... Keaton is looking out of one eye at Nelly....and out of the other at Jacobson....cross-eyed, we call it....Aloha! Is Lee Long going Hawaiian? We wonder....A certain fellow from Utah is coming soon and a summer's romance will burst forth in bloom again....From the card party we gather that: We can gather at Lehr's house for breakfast....Professor Wallace's house for tea biscuits....Dean Bradford's domicile for a bottle of beer....Fran will take us to a show....Johnk will supply the after-theatre refreshments....LOVE IN BLOOM....Between Fisher and Stageman, or don't they know, either?How about Kozak and Schaaf? Yes or no....Nygaard and Coulter have kissed and made up....No more cutting at dances....Kimber goes to the library to study or to see Anthes.... This will settle something or other.

Adams has a marvelous looking fem who writes to him incessantly....Last reports favorable on the Boldenow-Gross....Schaaf and Flescher are infatuated, but not with each other....Hesler went clear to Fremont for a glass of beer....Also Hesler's long underwear was dragging last week....Dutch Hesler and Judge Landis have decided to handicap themselves til December 15....Anyone who sees either break the resolution can collect $5.00.... Clough and Rachman seem to be together a lot these days and nights, too....Well, having violated every one of our new rules for the writing of this column we fold....Be sure to be at the game tomorrow....It's the last game for some of our best players—Pearey, King, Sorensen, Anderson, Nelson and Turner....Turn out and watch them avenge the 117-0 score that was handed to Omaha years ago in '28.

Gateway Guys Get Gold

With so many Gateway writers, past and present, around this week whistling, "I Got Five Dollars," to an envious student body, there has to be some explanation, and this is it: Some of those stories which you read last year struck pay dirt.

Hoping to discover the final resting place of the bonanza, and knowing reporters, it was necessary to question them before they got the money—no after. You may be interested in these answers:

Music Student—Scribner's
(Anonymous)

Scribner's for November contains a pathetic true story of a small-town girl who came to New York to seek musical fame. She has been there five years and has found little other than disillusionment and heart-breaking delays. "Five years! Study with famous teachers, member of three opera companies, one of them the Metropolitan itself, a New York recital. But—I am still a music student, haunting singing studios, annoying managers and producers. I live in an eight-dollar room and eat in cafeterias." Her experience is similar to that of thousands of young people seeking professional careers. Only one in thousands is good enough to make a professional career, but all are encouraged and led on and on by ignorant or unscrupulous advisors.

However, youth does not observe or pay heed to experience. After all, what for the most part is this present but a multitude of infinitesimal beings fawning over and battering its life away before the god, Career?

UNDOUBTEDLY

It is high time for a cool, unrelenting, non-political, non-sentimental, and fact-supported showdown on the forms in which "honor and sacredness" are administered.

LEST WE FORGET

It will soon be high time for us to carefully peruse the notes we have taken in class (not the mash notes) and desperately glean what little information therein abiding. There are many people who carefully take notes on the important things in class (of course, one disregards Miladies' hats and Doctor's striped tie). Having attended this and other institutions for a good many years (too many) I have come to the conclusion that much of those notes have been of no little importance in confusing me on the important aspects of those too final examinations.

Can it be that class notes are the abominable machinations of our professors who, having passed their student days and been initiated into the secrets of their chosen profession, are seeking deliberately to upset our educational equilibrium, and find that class notes are the ultimate of their desires?

I can't answer this question positively, but I can offer the above excerpts from my notes on American drama as mighty significant evidence.

College Rhythm
Pi O Dance Theme

The day after Thanksgiving, Friday, November 29, Pi Omega Pi pledges will give a College Rhythm dance. Dorothy McGahn, pledge president, and Violet Devaney have secured Bob Knapp's orchestra for the occasion. Two hundred and fifty bids have been issued. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Baker, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Helmstadter, and Mr. and Mrs. Sed Hartman have been invited to attend as guests of honor.

It's In The Cards

By LEO PEAREY

Did you know that Jimmie James, varsity end last year, was really missed by an opposing team when he was given a brief rest while playing against them? Jimmie was playing end opposite Louie Chumich, giant North Dakota U. tackle, and after a scrimmage, Chumich's helmet was missing. He couldn't find it anywhere. After the officials and both teams had looked every place for it, Jimmie drew his hand from behind his back, with the helmet in it and told Louie that if he could describe the one he was hiding he would give it back. Several days later Jimmie was substituted for and Chumich almost cried because his "three-ring circus" had been taken out. This year when the Nodaks came down, the same Chumich seemed very disappointed when someone told him Jimmie had graduated.

King was very surprised in the game last week when he blocked Rorvig, Dakota fullback, and some false teeth fell on the ground beside him. However, he picked them up and standing on tip-toe handed them back to the big fellow with, "Sorry, Pop; next time I'll take it a little easier."

"Dear Doctor" Riggins had been playing an especially good game against Morningside, when he was knocked out on a certain play. After many attempts had failed to bring him around, someone asked him how he would like to have a cup of hot chocolate. Riggins was so mad that he jumped up right away and walked back to his guard position as if nothing had happened.

They call Johnny Baker "Tarzan" because after he takes a shower, he puts on his shorts and a hat and gets in the coaches' room and hollers at the top of his voice. The explanation is that he has to become civilized in this uncivilized west after being on the coast so long.

Johnk kept looking at the grandstand during the Peru game. Jerry Gardner asked him if he was looking for his girl. Johnk blushed and said, "No, I'm counting the people to see if everyone used the passes I gave them."

One cold night two weeks ago the varsity was practicing with warm-up jackets on. Hartman was getting mad because the boys were not trying very hard because of the heavy wraps, so he made them take them off. The only one around who could hold the discarded jackets was Baker. After a while Sed, to prove he wasn't any different, took his own off and threw it at the already overburdened Johnny, who yelled, "Say, what is this, a strip poker game?"

Did you know that—"Normie" and "Howie" Sorenson get up at 4 o'clock every morning to help milk about forty cows—that Loren Gammon has fallen in love at last and that he signified that love by giving his one and only a little black rabbit—that Boldenow takes two girls to church every Sunday?

Then there's the story of the freshman, who in the Morningside-Omaha frosh game kept spitting brownish liquid on the ball, causing the other team to fumble. After the game he was very sick, but no one seemed to know what the ailment was.

Karl Klein Talks To German Club

Karl Klein of Germany was the guest speaker at the meeting of the German Club Wednesday, November 20, at Science Hall. Mr. Klein addressed the group on the conditions in Germany at the present time under the Nazi regime.

Mr. Klein described the work that is being carried on by the Arbeitsdienst or Labor Camp movement and the Kraft Durch Freude or Strength Through Joy movement.

Mr. Klein came to the United States from Germany six weeks ago and he intends to stay in Omaha until February. At present Mr. Klein is employed on the Omaha Daily Tribune, a German newspaper. He was also employed as a journalist in Germany.

June Erickson, vice-president of the club, appointed a nominating committee composed of Ed Smith, Parley Rogers and Blandwyn Holler to select nominees for officers of the club to be elected soon. Clitus Olson was appointed representative to the Federation of German Societies.

Miss Hildegard Stauss, German instructor, sponsors the club.

Betty Arnold, '39, who has been ill, returned to school, Monday, November 18.

Jane Cook, '39, has been absent the past week because of bronchitis. She will return to school Monday.

Roger Hughes, '37, visited Dick Daugherty, ex '37, in Lincoln last week-end.

Nobody Loves a Fat Man

Fat students show a lack of gray matter, according to Prof. Walter B. Pillsbury, a noted psychologist. He has divided his students into three classes—the tall thin type, the muscular type, and the short fat type. The skinny ones average the highest in college, with B grades, the athletic are next with C plus, and the fat just get through by the skin of their teeth.—Northeastern News Department.

Cards Hold Title In N. I. A. A. Loop

For the second time in two years Omaha University is the N. I. A. A. title-holder. The Cards have been taken for three losses from the North Central members, but have a 100 per cent win record in the N. I. A. A. loop.

Omaha will finish her schedule at Omaha Saturday against Chadron, holders of last place in the league. The Cards have three straight wins in this conference, and will keep their title even if they lose to Chadron.

Two Clubs Plan Formal Dances

Only two organizations have made plans for winter formal dances. Pi Omega Pi's dance will be held at the Fontenelle, December 27, with Anna Mae Winburn's orchestra playing. June Corkin, chairman, Amy Rohacek and Maxine Steincamp are the committee in charge.

Phi Sigma Phi will have their second annual Sweetheart Swing on St. Valentine's day, February 14. It will be held at the Chermot, with music by Franklin Vincent's orchestra.

French Club To Give Xmas Party

Plans for a Christmas party were made at the second meeting of the French Club, Wednesday, November 20, at 4 o'clock in the Women's Faculty Building. The party will be held the Wednesday before Christmas vacation, December 18.

It was proposed that in the near future, Rev. Victor E. Hally, formerly of Hiatt, now pastor of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church, talk to the group in French.

Norma Jean Warwick, '39, and Ruth Ward, '38, were appointed as a music committee to prepare some French songs for the group to sing. After the meeting, French games were played.

Two short plays were presented before a capacity crowd Tuesday night, November 19, in the auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Jean Jarmin. The plays given were "The Clod," by Lewis Beach, and Sir James Barrie's "Twelve Pound Look."

N. D. State Gets Conference Title

North Dakota State captured the North Central Conference title over North Dakota University last week as the conference teams played all but one game of the conference schedule. South Dakota State will play Iowa Teachers next week, but the result will make no difference in the standings.

Omaha University and Iowa Teachers, two newcomers to the conference, performed as well as is expected of newcomers. The Cards beat Morningside, but were not quite good enough against North Dakota State and University, and the South Dakota University. The Iowa Teachers won against Morningside last week, but had not enough conference games scheduled to be in the running.

DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE DURHAM, N. C.

Four terms of eleven weeks are given each year. These may be taken consecutively (graduation in three years) or three terms may be taken each year (graduation in four years). The entrance requirements are intelligence, character and at least two years of college work, including the subjects specified for Grade A Medical Schools. Catalogues and application forms may be obtained from the Dean.

Begin Basketball Practice Monday

Basketball practice will start in full swing next Monday, according to Coach Johnny Baker. The University of Omaha will play all of the schools in the North Central Conference this season, but only Wayne in the Nebraska Conference. Two games will be played with each of the schools, one at home and one away.

Bolte, Baade, Kozak and Wolf reported for practice last week. The rest of the varsity are expected when the football season ends.

Coach Baker is unable to make any statement as to the outlook this early in the season. Prospects are not so bright because of the loss of Wilkinson, Patterson and Curtis, top notchers who graduated last June.

Sullenger To Talk At St. Louis Soon

Dr. T. Earl Sullenger, head of the sociology department, has accepted an invitation to present a paper before the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science at St. Louis, Missouri, Tuesday, December 31. His subject will be "A Study of Ethnic Assimilation in Omaha," based on some of his recent researches.

Student Injured In Auto Crash

Doris Lynn, '37, will have to spend a few more months of her life studying at home because of a broken pelvic bone suffered in an automobile accident last Friday, November 15. Until she was 14 her entire schooling had been done at home because of a weak heart.

Miss Lynn was hurt when the automobile in which she was riding skidded on icy pavement and crashed into a telephone pole at 39th and Davenport streets. The driver, Arthur King, '36, and Laura Buckland, '37, who was riding in the back seat with Miss Lynn, were uninjured. She was taken to the Immanuel hospital.

Doris must wear a cast for the next three months, and will continue her studies at Omaha University from her room. She received a four-year scholarship to the University from Technical High school.

The three were on their way to school Friday morning when the accident happened.

The Pre-Med club introduced a new type of entertainment at their meeting Tuesday, November 19. Every two weeks the club will have students read papers of a medical nature to the group during the lunch hour. Bob Stowe, chairman of the committee, and Paul Stageman read a paper on The History of Medicine Down to the Time of the Grecian Period.

W. A. A. Sponsored Party Drew Large Group For Cards

One hundred and eighty people attended the Women's Athletic Association Benefit Card Party Tuesday evening, November 19, in Jacobs' Hall. Thirty-five door prizes were awarded after an hour of playing.

Members of the Association contributed candy for each table. The proceeds from the party will enable several W. A. A. members to attend the national convention in Minneapolis next spring.

Bennie Johnson, '36, drew the winning numbers for the door prizes, which were awarded by Helen Saltares, '38; Elinor Johnson, '37, and Anne Raymond, '38. The prizes were donated to W. A. A. by the following companies: Knudsen Grocery Company, Kunold, Carlson and Peters Mortuary, Alamito Dairy, Barbara Joy Cosmetics, Midas Ice Cream Company, Brandeis Theatre, Orpheum Theatre, Omaha Theatre, Omar Flour Company, Nebraska Power Company, Martha Washington, Hardings' Bottling Company, Storz Brewery, Ted's Pen Shop, Sears & Roebuck, Matthews Book Shop, Luzianne Ice Cream, Logan Beauty Shop, Kitty Clover Potato Chips, Miller's Cereal Company, Dreshers', Hallquist's Candy Shop, Ideal Potato Chips and Lottie Beauty Shop.

Alpha Sigma Lambda will have a party tonight at the home of John Burke.
